

Primrose

First Floor Flat in La Maison Des Fleurs,
a 17th Century building overlooking a quiet cobbled square, and only two minutes walk from the harbour

Sleeps 6 - 10 people • 3 Double bedrooms (including one with a four poster bed)
1 Double sofa bed in living area • 2 Single mattresses on loft style mezzanine level within bedroom one

Primrose is a spacious self catering holiday apartment with double height windows in the open plan living/dining/kitchen area that allows the morning sunshine to fill the room.

The apartment comprises of a modern fully fitted kitchen with dishwasher. The dining table can easily accommodate 6 people and can be extended to cater for up to 10 people.

The living room area, including bar stools to drink your morning coffee whilst watching Honfleur come to life, consists of a comfortable double sofa bed and three armchairs. There is a TV, DVD, Video and Satellite TV (BBC, ITV, Channel 4, 5, Sky News, CNN, Movies etc). We also provide a selection of videos, DVDs and boardgames for relaxing nights in.

Bedroom one has a large double bed and a loft style mezzanine level accessed by a pull-down staircase – there are two single mattresses located in the eaves – a popular den for older children and teenagers (as well as adults!). As the mezzanine level is high up children under the age of 10 must be supervised - especially when accessing the staircase!

The second double bedroom has a double height ceiling with a beautifully beamed dressing area.

The largest third bedroom with four poster double bed has a convenient handbasin and room to relax on the chaise longue. The double windows open onto the square below.

Linen, towels and bathrobes are provided in all bedrooms.

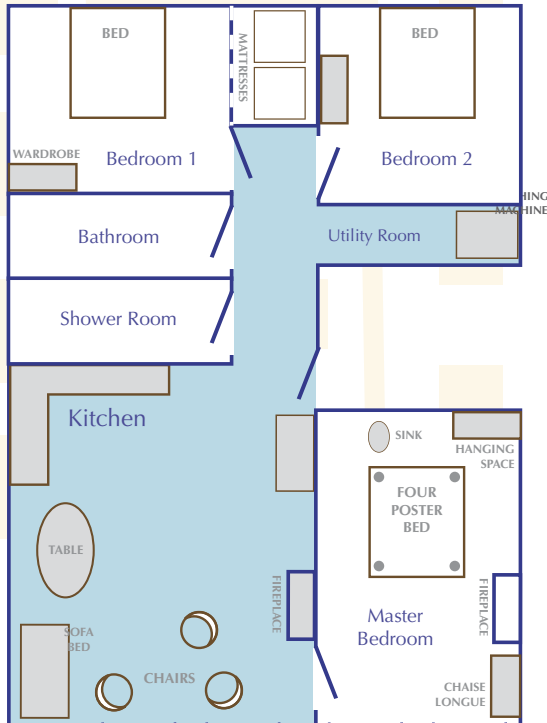

There is one family sized bathroom and one shower room both with hand basins and WCs.

There is a small utility room with washing machine and hand basin ideal for after a day at the beach or storing golf clubs and walking boots.
